

New Publications.

THE OLDEST AGRICULTURAL PAPER IN AMERICA!

THE GENESEE FARMER.

(Established in 1811.)

Published for a third of a century in the center of the best Wheat and Fruit region in America, with correspondents in all sections of the United States and Canada, it contains information of great practical value to EVERYBODY INTERESTED IN AGRICULTURE AND HORTICULTURE.

ONLY 75 CENTS A YEAR.

And all who subscribe at this time for the year 1864 will receive the October, November, and December Numbers of this paper, FREE!

NOW IS THE TIME TO SUBSCRIBE!

The October Number, now ready, contains a description of the different varieties of Wheat shown at the

GREAT INTERNATIONAL WHEAT SHOW,

Held at Rochester, N. Y., Sept. 8, 9, and 10; some of which weighed fifty-five pounds per bushel; with many other articles of interest to every Farmer and Horticulturist. Also, the Address of the President on the

CULTIVATION OF WHEAT
IN WESTERN NEW-YORK,

With much other matter of special interest to Wheat growers in all sections of the country.

This number of the GENESEE FARMER will be sent by return mail (post-paid) to any address on the receipt of TEN CENTS.

THREE MONTHS FOR NOTHING!

To all who subscribe at this time for next year, this number, together with the November and December numbers, will be sent FREE. Now is the time to subscribe. Send the money by mail, AT OUR RISK, and the paper will come by return mail.

THE GENESEE FARMER,

for 1863, 1859, 1860, 1861 and 1862, handsomely bound, in five volumes, with a complete index, will be sent by express (prepaid) on the receipt of FIVE DOLLARS. These volumes form a good

AMERICAN CYCLOPEDIA
OF AGRICULTURE AND HORTICULTURE.

Articles of great value will be found on the cultivation of

Wheat, Barley, Oats, Bye, Indian Corn, Buckwheat, Sorghum,

Cicer, Timothy, Turnips, Mangold Wurzel, Beets, Parsnips, Carrots,

And every crop that the farmer cultivates. The five volumes contain nearly TWO THOUSAND Pages, filled with useful reading, and illustrated with over 500 ENGRAVINGS.

These volumes will form a handsome addition to any Farmer's Library, and will prove invaluable for reference. There is scarcely a subject in the whole range of Agricultural and Horticultural practice that is not treated on.

THE GARDENER AND FRUIT GROWER

With many treatises of great value, on the management of the Kitchen Garden, Planting and Cultivating Fruit and Ornamental Trees, with useful

HORTICULTURAL NOTES FOR THE MONTH.

THE DAIRY FARMER will find articles on Cheese and Butter Making, On the Improvement of Permanent Meadows, On Feeding Cows and Rearing Calves, &c.

These five volumes will contain over

100 PRIZE ESSAYS!

Written for the GENESEE FARMER, by experienced Farmers and fruit growers in the United States and Canada. These Prize Essays are of a practical character. Among them may be mentioned Essays

On the Winter Management of Dairy Cows,

On the Raising, Gathering and Cleaning of Clover Seed,

On the Management of Permanent Grass Land.

On Fattening Cattle in Winter.

On Building Stone Fences.

On Making and Packing down Butter for Winter use.

On the Manufacture of Vinegar.

On Hail and Down Hail.

On Fattening Sheep in Winter.

On the Management of Fine Wool Sheep.

On the best method of obtaining Eggs in Winter.

On Curing, Curing and Feeding Corn Stalks.

On the Cultivation of Winter Barley.

On the most economical way of Wintering Horses.

On the best kind of Horses for Farmers.

On the best method Drying Fruits.

On Grating old Apple Orchards.

On the best Substitutes for Hay.

On Raking and Fertilizing Hops; and

ON A HUNDRED OTHER SUBJECTS!

THE RURAL ANNUAL

AND

HORTICULTURAL DIRECTORY,

A fine work published at the commencement of each year, by the Editor of the GENESEE FARMER: Price 25 Cents. It was started in 1856. Eight Volumes have now been published. These will be sent (prepaid) by return mail, to any address, on the receipt of $1.60.

Each number contains 120 Pages, Illustrated with

BEAUTIFUL ENGRAVINGS,

And filled with reliable information on all subjects interesting to the Farmer, Fruit-grower, and Horticulturist. Valuable treatise will be found on the cultivation of

Grapes, Apples, Hedges,

Strawberries, Pears, Ornamental Trees,

Raspberries, Peaches, Evergreens,

Blackberries, Plums, Flowers,

And Garden Vegetables of all kinds.

Designs of Hoses, Barns, &c. A Treatise on Manures, with analysis of one hundred and seven different manuring substances, showing their value for manure.

If preferred, a complete set of these eight numbers of the RURAL ANNUAL AND HORTICULTURAL DIRECTORY, handsomely bound in two volumes, will be sent by mail (post-paid) on receipt of $2.50.

SEND FOR ALL THESE WORKS.

1. You can have the October number of The GENESEE FARMER, for.....$1.60.

2. You can have the GENESEE FARMER for 1864, and the three last numbers of this year, for.....$2.50.

3. You can have a complete set of The GENESEE FARMER, for the years 1856, '57, '58, '59, '60, '61, '62 and '63, for.....$5.00.

4. You can have the complete set of The Rural Annual, bound in two volumes, for.....$2.50.

5. You can have a complete set of the bound volumes of The GENESEE FARMER and of the Rural Annual, (sent in one package, prepaid, by express,) for.....$7.00.

6. The money may be sent in a letter at our risk. Ad-

JOSEPH HARRIS,

EDITOR AND PROPRIETOR OF THE

GENESEE FARMER AND RURAL ANNUAL.

Boston, N. E.

New Publications.

A BOOK FOR EVERYBODY.—
Just Published;
WELLIS'S ILLUSTRATED

NATIONAL HANDBOOK.

A complete Compendium of the Political History of the Country, from the original Formation of the Government to the Present Time—treated with a Chronological Record of Events, and other valuable information of universal interest, including BIBLIOGRAPHY.

The original Articles of the Constitution by which the country was governed before the adoption of the Constitution.

The Jeffersonian Ordinance of 1784.

Constitution of the United States.

Decisions of the Supreme Court.

Washington's First Inaugural Address.

Moscow Compromise of 1854.

Fugitive Slave Law of 1850.

Emancipation Act of 1863.

Compromised Slaveholding Bill of 1863.

Population of the United States by the Census of 1860 and 1861.

Public Debt.

Product of Gold in the States.

Laws of Foreign and Miscellaneous Provisions.

Message of the President and Vice-President from Washington to Lincoln, with the important speeches of each Administration.

The Great Seal of the United States, and the State Seals, with a Description.

Motion of the United States and of Individual States.

Portions of all the Presidents, with a Sketch of their Lives.

Geography of the United States.

Principal Executive, Legislative, and Judicial Officers of the United States Government.

Order of Succession of the Confederate States.

Governors of Confederate States.

Officers of the War Department.

Table of Pay, Subsidies, &c., allowed to the Officers of the Army.

Monthly Pay of Non-Commissioned Officers, Privates, etc.

Officers of the Navy Department.

Table of Pay, Subsidies, &c., allowed to the Officers of the Navy.

Agents and Clerks of Internal Revenue.

Table of Gold and Silver Values.

Table of Postage Rates.

Table of Postage Rates.